

Genesis: The Key to the Bible
(Part 9) The Wide-Reaching Ramifications of Sin

Sin never seems to be as egregious or _____ as it really is

(Gen. 3:6) Even though she was _____ of God's goodness and care for her, the woman sinned

The serpent convinced her that God was _____ withholding something amazing

Why was her husband there _____ the whole interaction unfold?

(Gen 3:7-19) Much _____, blatant foul, _____ deal

(v.7-8) After partaking of that which was forbidden, there was an immediate sense of _____

The serpent did not _____, their eyes were opened as they _____ together (2:25)

They tried in their newly discovered knowledge to _____ their sin (Exodus 34:29-35)

They tried to _____ from God

The foundation of covenant-keeping love _____.

God _____ them for their good, and them enjoying him in that _____ while relying on him

(v.9-19) Accountability and _____

(v.9-11) God gives the Adam a chance to _____ himself

(v.12-13) Blame shifting

(v.14-19) _____ consequences for a moment of sin and rebellion

(v.14-15) Serpent cursed and promised future _____

(v.16) Woman cursed with pain in childbirth and frustrating desire to _____ her husband

(v.17-19) Both man and the earth _____

(v.17a) Man cursed because he failed to act as her _____ (Eph. 5:25-28)

Instead of standing for God's righteousness he _____ both God and his wife

(v.17b-18) The earth is cursed because he failed to recognize the _____ of God (Rom.8:19-22)

So he would realize the _____ of sin through the pains of backbreaking work.

Outside the garden, the land would not _____ provide all people need to exist

(v.19) The _____ curse of death is pronounced (Rom. 5:12-19)