

Genesis: The Key to the Bible
(Part 14) One Righteous Man Standing in an Evil World

Sin affects the world at the _____ level, and humans at the _____ level

(Genesis 6:9-22) Refers to the righteous life of Noah

(v.9) Noah is at peace with God and is now the _____ and representative of those who are in the same relation.

The biblical story begins to confine itself to the portion of the human family in _____ with God

Noah is here characterized by two new and important adjectives - “_____” and “_____.”

He was of _____ descent in the lineage of Seth

Noah has already found _____ in the eyes of the Lord. (6:8)

He _____ with God - he was not only righteous in his conduct, but he was devout, and had continual communion with God.

“Walked with God” - The same word is used as before in the case of Enoch. (5:22).

(v.10) Noah had _____ sons

(v.11-12) The earth is entirely _____ and filled with _____

Nobody but Noah and his family are exempt from impending _____

God plans to use Noah and his family to start a new _____ (Hebrews 11:7; 2 Peter 2:4-5).

(v.13-22) God’s master plan revealed and accomplished by Noah

(v.13) God tells Noah he will _____ the earth to remove the corruption

(v.14-16) A very large _____

(v.17) God will use a flood to _____ the earth

(v.18) The first example of a _____ between God and man

(v.19-20) Provision to save wildlife

(v.21) Food for the journey

(v.22) Confirmation of Noah’s _____

He prepared the ark; and during one hundred and twenty years _____ righteousness to that sinful generation

We should desire to find _____ in the eyes of the Lord, than be regarded by an admiring world; and have our names written in the Lamb's book of life, than inscribed in the histories of _____ among the world’s mightiest heroes.