

Genesis: The Key to the Bible
(Part 36) When God Gets Your Attention

There comes a time when every young person has to decide whether or not he/she will develop a _____ relationship with God

If we each could share how God began with us, we'd probably _____ at the ways He broke into each of our lives.

Jacob's experience has been one of receiving his blessings through his _____ Isaac

He is not a _____ follower as is evidenced in the scheme to steal Esau's blessing

He was a _____ something year-old mama's boy, and a cheat who had to flee for his life from his angry brother.

(Genesis 28:10-22) Jacob has his first _____ encounter with God

(v.10-12) Jacob's encounter with God begins as a _____

(v.13-15) God reveals himself and renews the _____ made to Abraham

(v.16-17) Jacob's " _____ " moment concerning his interaction with God

(V.18-22) Jacob still not _____ committed to serving the God of Abraham and Isaac _____ sets the conditions whereby he will follow God

He knows what _____ is

He knows what _____ is

He is a _____ person in a battle between what he sees as right and what God wants for him

How can God break into a person's life and begin a work in them?

Before a person will be receptive to the solution, he/she has to be deeply _____ of his/her problem.

If one is not aware of their great need, they will _____ any intrusion into their life