

Genesis: The Key to the Bible
(Part 37) What Goes Around Comes Around

Jacob obtained both the birthright and the blessing of Isaac through _____ and _____

He fled home and has traveled _____ miles to meet his extended family

Same trip taken by Eliezar to find wife for Isaac

Jacob met by the Lord God Himself on the way in Bethel.

In a dream, God Himself _____ the covenant promises given to Abraham and Isaac

God's has plans for Jacob, and his protective care is both wide and _____.

(Genesis 29:1-20) A love story with a _____

(v.1-8) _____ achieved

(v.9-14) Extended family reunion

(v.15-20) A seemingly straightforward _____

(v.21) Time to _____ accounts

(v. 22-30) A little _____

(v.31-35) The promise begins to be fulfilled

God used these _____ years to knock a lot of rough edges off Jacob.

Ultimately, yes, God would _____ him.

Part of the process involved _____ Jacob of his selfish ways.

God wasn't _____, even though He isn't mentioned in verses 1-30.

He was watching (v.31), arranging the circumstances to _____ Jacob into the man He wanted him to be.