

Genesis: The Key to the Bible
(Part 38) Intervening for God Never Produces the Best Results

It is amazing how mistakes in _____ appear in subsequent generations

Hebrew women considered barrenness as one of the greatest _____ that could happen to them

Jacob's _____ to Leah created unhappiness in his household.

Leah's desire for Jacob's love is seen in the _____ she gave her first four sons (31-35).

(Genesis 30:1-2) Rachel is _____ of her sister Leah

Leah has already bourn Jacob _____ sons

She _____ a child from Jacob, who responds accordingly

(v.3-21) The _____ intensifies

(v.3-8) Surrogate children

(v.9-21) Rachel “ _____ ” her husband for an herbal remedy for _____

(v.22-24) _____ conception

(v.25-45) Wealth _____ subterfuge by a relative

(v.25-26) Jacob is successful and is ready to go home

(v.27-31a) Laban reliant upon Jacob for his own _____ and tries to dissuade him from leaving

(v.31b-34a) A “mutual” agreement to end the _____

(v.34b-36) Underhanded activity

(v.37-43) Jacob turns the tables with miraculous intervention from _____

(v.43) Jacob became wealthy apart from Laban and despite Laban’s _____