

Genesis: The Key to the Bible
(Part 39) Jealousy and Deception Can Be Destructive

When attitudes and practices begin to change in relationships, there is _____ on the horizon

(Genesis 31:1-13). Laban and his sons became increasingly _____ to him, so Jacob prepared to leave for Canaan immediately

(v.1-7a) Jacob _____ Laban of _____ him (Gen.27)

(v.7b-13) God is always _____ to accomplish his purposes

(v.14-16). Leah and Rachel agreed to leave, because they were also _____ with Laban.

He had used them to make himself rich,

Apparently, he had no intention of giving them a _____ in the inheritance

(v.17-21) Moving out secretly after _____ years

(v.19) When they fled, Rachel stole her father's household _____

According to Mesopotamian custom possession of these gave her some _____ to the inheritance

(v.22-35). Laban was upset to find that Jacob and his family had _____

(v.22-23) In _____ pursuit

(v.24) God says, "Back off."

(v.25-30) Laban concocts another _____

(v.30) He was particularly upset that they had taken his idols with them.

(v.31-35) Apologies and a _____ search

(v.31) Leaving for the same reason he arrived

(v.32-35) Everyone is a _____

(v.36-42) Enough is enough

Jacob gives a _____ of all he has done and suffered

(43-55) Burying the hatchet

Laban and Jacob agree to strike a _____

They leave a pile of stones as a reminder

(v.54) Jacob makes a _____ to seal the deal
