

Genesis: The Key to the Bible
(Part 41) Spiritual Highs and Lows

Many times in life, we rejoice in our interaction with God, but we still _____ with what is ahead of us

Jacob had a dramatic spiritual experience with God, but he knew he still had to face _____ the next day.

(Genesis 33:1-3) He took _____ to protect his family against any possible hostility, then went ahead to meet Esau personally.

(4-11) Esau showed a generous spirit of _____,

The result of that the dreaded meeting proved to be a _____ reunion.

Jacob had gained Esau's birthright and blessing by cunning and deceit

He was not allowed to enjoy them fully till he _____ himself before Esau

By his forgiveness, Esau acknowledged that he had no claim against Jacob.

Esau showed he had no _____ by accepting Jacob's gift

(12-17) Esau asked Jacob to follow him to Edom, but Jacob chose a divergent _____.

Jacob decided to settle for the time being at the nearby town of Succoth

He lived there for a while, building semi-permanent _____

(v.18-20) He moves again and _____ a piece of property from his neighbors

(Genesis 34) The danger of the world and assimilation to it

(v.1-4) Fatal Attraction, kidnapping and _____

(v.5-12) An attempt to smooth things over with Jacob and his family

(v.5-6) The king tries to " _____ " with Jacob while his sons are not home

(v.7) Jacob's sons learn of the _____ that has fallen on their sister and their family

(v.8-10) We can all get by this slight indiscretion, or can we?

King says, let's all be friends and share everything

(v.11-12) The prince _____ to make his case

(v.13-20) Vengeance is planned as a deceitful scheme is _____

(v.21-24) Hamor and his people unwarily follow through with the " _____ "

(v.25-29) Vengeance and retribution

(v.30-31) Worries about _____