

In Search of True Believers
(Part 2) The Reality of Irreconcilable Philosophies

Starting from a young age, people can make _____ decisions about what is right and wrong; this makes morality fundamental to the human condition.

Moral reasoning is the process whereby individuals try to determine the _____ between what is right and wrong

(Exodus 20:1-17) God's moral _____ for his people

Moral choices can affect personal, economic, or _____ decisions (2 Corinthians 6:14-17b)

Are your decisions made differently from unbelievers?

Many different forms of moral reasoning are dictated by _____. (Ephesians 5:1-14)

Are you drawn to _____ pursuits?

In this multicultural world, we encounter much _____ of thought or worldview (1 John 2:15-17)

Are you in the _____?

True followers of Christ must separate themselves from _____ worldviews (2 Corinthians 6:17c-18)

Satan wants people to view all ideologies as _____

"Your man has been accustomed, ever since he was a boy, to have a dozen incompatible philosophies dancing about together in his head...jargon, not argument is your best ally in keeping him from the church." (C.S. Lewis, The Screwtape Letters Pg. 11)
