

Jonah: God Does Not Want Anyone to Perish
(Part 4) It's Not Fair

Often, we look around at others whom God is blessing, and we are jealous or angered by his _____ toward them.

We decide whether they _____ what God chooses to give them.

We may even be tainted by prejudice or bigotry.

(Jonah 4:1-3) Jonah's true _____ for hesitating to go to Nineveh.

(v.1) As Jonah sees God's grace and mercy, he becomes incredibly_____.

He is a pathetic, _____, prophet, because he did not get his way.

(v.2) God I knew you would forgive them, and I _____.

(v.3) Just kill me.

Same prayer prayed by _____ as he ran from Jezebel (1 Kings 19:4)

Jonah would rather be dead than be _____ as a prophet of Yahweh among his peers.

(v.4) God's response to Jonah

Your anger is_____.

(v.5-8c) God does not coddle us in our pity party.

(v.5) Jonah went to pout and see if the Lord would change heart and do it His way.

(v.6) God _____ for Jonah even in his unrighteousness.

Jonah was grateful to be comforted.

(v.7-8c) When God removes his gracious provision Jonah's true _____ resurfaces.

(v.7-8c) God takes away Jonah's source of_____.

(v.8d-9) Jonah wishes he was dead, rather than sit in the sun.

(v.9) God questions Jonah's motivation again

(v.10-11) Jonah gets a reality check from God that exposes him for who he is.

You are more worried about the plant that gave you shade, than for the lives of Nineveh's residents

Jonah was prejudiced to the point of_____.

He would rather see people be destroyed than to receive _____ from God.
