

Mark: Cleansing the Moral Poison of Society
(Part 2) Uncommon Authority

Many modern speakers base their comments on expert testimony or writings that are not their own.

They quote famous speakers and thinkers to show their own _____ of subject matter.

Jesus was humble but spoke with _____.

(Mark 1:21-34) Jesus is not a run of the mill, powerless mouthpiece claiming to represent God.

(v.21-28) Jesus is at the synagogue at Capernaum, teaching the Word.

Capernaum served as a _____ for Jesus' ministry.

(v.21-22) As He taught and ministered among the people that day, it quickly became evident that Jesus was no _____ man.

He spoke with authority and exercised power that captured the attention of those present within the synagogue.

(v.23-26) Authority over a _____ presence

(v.24) A demon possessed man in the synagogue accuses Jesus of _____ the work of _____.

There is _____ in the comments of the evil presence.

The demon pronounces Jesus as _____.

(25-26) Jesus reprimands the demon and demands he leave his human host.

He also commands it to be silent.

(v.27-28) The people are amazed.

Jesus' fame begins to _____.

(v.29-34) Always ready to accomplish God's purposes.

(v.29) Jesus and his core group of followers meet at Peter and Andrew's house.

(v.30-31) Peter's Mother-in-law is extremely ill, and Jesus shows his authority over _____.

(v.32-34) Jesus heals bodies and _____ souls.

The whole town of Capernaum turns out.