

Mark: Cleansing the Moral Poison of Society
(Part 5) Reaching People While Rejecting Religion

As most ministries enlarge, the participants look for a larger space to meet.

(Mark 2:13-17) Jesus focused on _____ even in the midst of a growing crowd.

(v.13) Jesus left the house where he had recently healed the paralytic to go out by the sea of Galilee.

The crowds continued to come to him for healing, teaching, and plain old curiosity.

(v.14) Jesus calls an unlikely follower.

Levi (Matthew) was a _____ tax collector.

(v.15) Dinner with the_____.

Levi invites Jesus to come meet his friends for supper.

His friends are “disreputable” just like him.

(v.16-17) _____ up with the religious people

The holier than thou folks always _____ Jesus as he became more popular.

Religious people _____ people and _____ Jesus.