

Mark: Cleansing the Moral Poison of Society
(Part 13) Better than Doctors and Stronger than Death

In a short amount of time, Jesus' popularity and his miracles drew masses of people to see him.

Everywhere Jesus went, someone was there to ask for his help.

(Matthew 5:21-42) Seeking Jesus for his _____ touch.

(v.21-24) Jesus arrives back on the opposite side of the Sea of Galilee.

(v.21-22) The first person to approach him from the crowd is the leader of the local synagogue.

(v.23-24) He _____ himself at Jesus' feet, pleading on behalf of his daughter.

(v.25-34) Interruption by determined _____.

(v.25-29) Desperate times call for desperate measures.

This woman has spent _____ trying to overcome a physical and _____ problem.

She has spent all of her finances seeking to be well, but her condition had _____.

(v.27-29) She takes a chance based on what she has observed.

(v.29) As she touches Jesus' garment, her faith produces the desired result.

(v.30-34) The _____ healing is exposed to produce an even greater _____.

(v.30-31) Jesus knows healing power has been received.

He asks for the beneficiary to _____ him/herself to the crowd.

(v.32-34) Jesus _____ causes the woman to step forward.

The woman approaches in humility and _____.

Rather than berate her, Jesus _____ her faith and reestablishes her in the community.

(v.35-42) Continuing to respond to Jairus' request.

(v.35) Never mind, it's too _____ to help.

(v.36) Stand firm in your faith.

(v.37-40a) Opposing the _____.

(v.40b-42) Death _____; mourning traded for amazement.

(v.43) Jesus tells this family to keep the process and outcome to themselves.