

Mark: Cleansing the Moral Poison of Society
(Part 15) Cancel Culture is Not a New Phenomenon

Even though he was rejected in his hometown, Jesus' fame spread throughout the region of Galilee.

(Mark 6:14-29) Indisputable evidence of _____ power reaches the ear of the top politician.

(v.14a) Herod Antipas – Herod the Tetrarch hears about Jesus.

Son of Herod the Great.

Ruler/King/Governor of region of Galilee from 4 BC through 30 AD.

(v.14b-16) Confusion over the identity of Jesus

(v.14b) John the Baptist raised from the dead?

(v.15) Elijah?

They were _____ enough to know that someone like Elijah would come based on prophecy.

They missed the resemblance of _____ and Elijah.

(v.16) Herod fears that Jesus is come to take retribution for _____ of John.

(v.17-29) The death of the last Old Testament _____

(v.17-20) John accused Herod of _____ and Herod had him arrested.

He had an adulterous affair with and subsequently married his brother's wife.

Herodias wanted John killed for his accusations, but she did not have _____ to do so.

Herod still held John in high esteem even though John would not _____ in his accusations.

(v.21-29) Scheming to stop the voice of opposition.

(v.21-25) Lecherous man offers pretty girl any birthday wish she desires

Herodias tells her daughter to ask for John's _____.

(v.26-28) Buyer's remorse

Even though he regrets his _____ words, he has John beheaded and fulfills his obligation.

(v.29) John's disciples collected and bury his body.

Cancel culture exists to _____ any conversation that disagrees with their viewpoint.

Sinners do not want to be reminded of God's requirements or _____.