

Mark: Cleansing the Moral Poison of Society
(Part 16) The God of Provision

Jesus sent out the disciple in pairs to share the message of _____(Mark 6:7-13)

(John 6:30) The disciples come back from their preaching tour.

They reported to him all they had done and taught.

They had a simple message and were _____for the task (6:13)

Jesus' teaching plan _____- _____- _____.

(v:31-32) There are so many people swarming Jesus and he disciples that they need to get away for a minute.

Jesus wanted to _____, eat, and tell the disciples about John the Baptist.

(v.33-44) The God of _____

(v.33-34) They got in a boat and moved down shore from the crowds.

The people followed Jesus again.

The great _____recognizes the need of the people for his guidance and teaching.

Jesus saw the people as _____sheep.

(v.35-37) A seemingly impossible task

The _____disciples suggest that Jesus send the people home because it is supper time.

The disciples _____at Jesus' command for them to intervene on behalf of the people.

They did not have the same _____as Jesus did for the people.

"It is impossible!"

(v.38-40) God who meets our daily needs.

(v.38) Go see what you can find.

Jesus asks the disciples for the meager rations they found. (John 6:5-9)

(v.39-40) He gives _____instructions.

(v.41-44) Jesus turns a little boy's lunch for one into a feast for 5,000 men plus women and children.

(v.41) Jesus _____the 5 biscuits and 2 sardines.

Jesus _____the disciples _____the people.

(v.42) Everyone ate until they were full.

(v.43) There were _____baskets filled with bread left over.

(v.44) _____to _____people were affected by this miracle of Jesus provision.