

Mark: Cleansing the Moral Poison of Society
(Part 24) A Practical Lesson in Humility

Humility is often a dish served up through realistic understanding.

Jesus' disciples have been together for a while.

When more than two people are interacting regularly, opinions_____.

(Mark 9:30-32) On the road again

(9:30a) Based on the _____ tense of the verb used, they went from place to place, not staying long anywhere.

(9:30b-32) Jesus wants _____ alone with the disciples.

He has an important message for them, but they _____ it altogether.

_____ time he has talked about his impending death, burial and resurrection. (Mark 8:31)

They were afraid to ask for_____.

(Mark 9:33-37) Jesus and his disciples have worked their way back to their home base of Capernaum.

(v.33b-35) A sprinkle of _____ for the sake of perspective.

The disciples missed out on Jesus words earlier because they were distracted.

The disciples' thinking was _____ Jesus predicted his impending humiliation.

They were _____ for _____, not seeking to serve.

(v.36-37) A visual parable of _____ through a child.

Children have no major accomplishments, no real social standing, and definitely no_____.

Children have complete _____ in those who care for them.

_____ like a child is required of those who follow Christ.

Welcoming a _____ child of Christ is to welcome both Christ and the Father.

To welcome, receive, and accept another believer is to accept God.