

Mark: Cleansing the Moral Poison of Society
(Part 26) Marriage Between Two Complementarian Genders

Satan continues to do his best work by attacking our identities as human beings.

Our culture proudly trumpets the motto, "I have the right to be happy," _____ has been under attack for centuries.

The definition of the _____ has been changed.

The value of manhood and womanhood has been _____.

(Mark 10:1) Jesus is on the move and the crowds are still gathering.

(Mark 10:2-10) Posing a question about divorce in an attempt to _____ Jesus.

(v.2-5) The Pharisees in that day, for the most part, made divorce easy and wanted it to stay that way.

Satan _____ Scripture, and so did these religious leaders.

(V.6-9) The Pharisees wanted to talk about divorce, but Jesus wanted to talk about marriage and God's divine _____.

(v.6) _____ complementarian genders

(v.7-8a) Every _____ of their lives is joined in marriage.

(v.8b-9) This covenant involves _____.

God's design is one man for one woman for a _____, unless separated by death;

(Rom. 7:1-3).

(v.10-12) Jesus speaks with absolute _____.

Divorce, as we know, is even more _____ than losing a spouse or parent by death.

The Bible never condones divorce, it does recognize the _____ of divorce (Malachi 2:16).

The Bible gives two clear _____ for divorce:

Sexual immorality (Matthew 5:32; 19:9)

Abandonment by an unbeliever (1 Corinthians 7:15).

Even in these two instances, though, divorce is not required or even _____.