

Mark: Cleansing the Moral Poison of Society
(Part 43) Abused and Abandoned

What a whirlwind ride for Jesus.

He has been anointed, predicted his death and resurrection, revealed that he would be betrayed and that he will be_____.

(Mark 14:53-65) Jesus is before the high priest and the Sanhedrin.

This arrest and "trial" is _____ because it is secret and after dark.

(v.53-59) The unscrupulous religious elite will go to any unrighteous level needed to accuse Jesus of _____.

(v.54) Peter sneaks in and stay far enough away to observe but not be _____

(v.55-59) Cannot find enough _____ who can corroborate or spin a cohesive tall tale.

(v.60-62) Jesus announces that he is indeed the _____

(v.63-65) The religious elite go_____.

They even begin to physically _____ Jesus.

(Mark 14:66-72) A second more _____ betrayal and abandonment

(v.66-68) Peter's first verbal denial

(v.69-70a) Peter again denies he knows Jesus.

(v.70b-71) Peter is _____ and _____ concerning any association with Jesus.

(v.72) Reality sets in on Peter as he hears the words of Jesus in his mind, and he_____.
