

Hebrews – Jesus is the High Priest of the Perfect Covenant
(Part 1) Jesus is Superior to the Old Testament Prophets

Healthy Christians develop a _____ of biblical understanding and reliance on the Holy Spirit for guidance.

We can never truly understand the message of scripture without understanding both the Old and New Testaments.

The old covenant was written on _____, and the new covenant is written with the _____ of Jesus.
(Luke 22:20)

Hebrews serves like a _____ gospel, describing the ministry of Jesus in Heaven.

It is written in approximately AD 64-70 to 2nd generation Jewish believers who are wavering in their faith.

It takes away any uncertainty concerning the deity, humanity, _____ of Christ and his precious sacrifice.

Hebrews focuses on the superiority and sacrifice of Christ.

Jesus understands our needs because he was perfect in his _____.

He can meet our needs because he is perfect in his _____.

His sacrifice is the only means by which sin's hold in our lives can be overcome.

There is nothing more important in this life than a real and personal relationship with Jesus the Christ

(Hebrews 1:1-3) Jesus is greater than the prophets who once spoke for God.

(v.1) The prophets were human messengers used by God to correct and direct his people toward _____.
(Amos 3:7)

They sacrificed to bring God's _____ (Hebrews 11:36 ff.)

The prophets had no power and authority apart from _____.

(v.2-3a) Jesus, the creator of the universe (Colossians 1:15-20), is God in the flesh.

We are made in God's image, but Jesus alone is the _____ representation of God's being.

Jesus is the final and ultimate spokesperson, the " _____ " of God. (John 1:1-5)

He sacrificed his life to bring God's _____ (1 John 2:2)
