

Hebrews – Jesus is the High Priest of the Perfect Covenant
(Part 4) God Who Can Be Trusted

Jesus came as the _____ for the fallenness of man.

He came to restore man's original destiny, wholeness, and fulfillment in relation to God.

The author of Hebrews continues his comparison between Jesus and the angels.

(Hebrews 2:5-9) First mention of Jesus as the "_____."

(v.5) "Furthermore" ties us back to (1:13-14) and the comparison between Jesus and angels.

God did not place angels in control of the_____.

(v.6-8) While angels seem a more righteous powerful choice, man was created by God to rule and subdue the earth. (Psalm 8)

(v.6) God cares for and provides for us lowly humans.

Angels are the _____ who care for the recipients of God's salvation (1:14)

One day righteous men will _____ the angels (1 Corinthians 6:3).

(v.7) Although not currently as powerful as angels, we are made in God's image. (Genesis 1:26-28)

(v.8) Man has not recognized the fullness of authority because of _____. (Genesis 3:17-24; Romans 5:12)

(v.9) Jesus is the solution for man's sinful disconnection from God. (Philippians 2:5-11)

Jesus leads us out of slavery to sin and into the glory of the next world, where we reign with him.

(Hebrews 2:10-18) The _____ of Jesus brings salvation.

(v.10) God deemed Christ's sufferings on our behalf not only _____ but appropriate.

(v.11) Both Jesus, the one who sanctifies, and men and women, those who are being sanctified, share the same_____.

Jesus "sanctifies" or sets us apart for our intended_____, to enter the kingdom of God and reign with him in glory. (Ephesians 2:4-7)

(v.12-13) He is not ashamed to call those he redeems brothers and sisters. (Psalm 22:22; Isaiah 8:17-18)

Jesus speaks of God's children who have been entrusted to him by the Father.

(v.14-18) Since and therefore

Jesus became human for a purpose.

His purpose was to render the devil powerless and liberate his brothers.

(v.17-18) The best way for Jesus to help us _____ the penalty of sin and death was to become human.

The author introduces the main theme of his book, which concerns the _____ of Christ.

Jesus came to be a particular kind of high priest who is both merciful and faithful.

We can conclude based on what we have discussed today, that we have a merciful, gracious savior with whom we can identify.
