

Hebrews – Jesus is the High Priest of the Perfect Covenant
(Part 5) Important vs. Indispensable

The author of Hebrews has helped his readers understand the greatness of Christ in relation to angels and mankind.

Now he seeks to compare Jesus to Moses the _____ of Judaism.

This letter is written to counteract the teachings of a community of Jewish believers who had certain beliefs that were similar to the early Christians, but which tempted some to _____ to Judaism.

They did not profess Jesus as Savior, Lord, and _____ (Hebrews 3:1-6) Jesus is compared to Moses, the most famous _____ and leader of God's people.

(v.1a) Brothers and sisters who belong to God.

We are _____ brothers and sisters, and Jesus is not ashamed to call us "partners" (Hebrews 2:11).

We will reign with him in "the world to come" (Hebrews 2:5)

(v.1b-6) Consider Jesus - in all his deity and all his humanity, based on who he is and what he's done for us.

Jesus removed our sin, making us holy.

Moses was an important person, but their ideal of him was inflated.

Moses

Jesus

(v.3) Worthy of glory

(v.3) Worthy of more glory

(v.2,3,5) _____ of the house

(v. 3,4) The _____ of the house

(v.5) Servant

(v.6) The Son

(v.5) A servant in the house

(v.6) The Son _____ the house

(v.5) Testimony of the _____

(v.6) The _____ of the testimony

The "house" is God's _____ - his _____.

For Moses it was _____, primarily descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. (Numbers 12:7-8)

Jesus all _____ household is made up of all who believe in his provision and salvation.

Because we have an eternal destiny, we are enabled to live at a _____ level on earth.

As we struggle with persevering in the faith, one of the things that we need to do as believers, is remember who we are, and remember what God has made us by His grace.