

Hebrews – Jesus is the High Priest of the Perfect Covenant
(Part 22) Finish or Fail – Completely Your Choice

Have you ever been so discouraged and depressed by adverse circumstances, obstacles to your faith, and temptations to sin that you just wanted to quit and give up?

Biblical Christianity at times is a _____, a struggle, and an all-out war.

There is nothing more important than living a faithful life for the cause of Christ.

(Hebrews 12:1-4) Finishing the race.

True believers are challenged to live a life of self-sacrifice and self-discipline.

You never say “_____” to Christ without saying “_____” to something else.

(v.1) Following successful examples is the key to winning.

Get rid of everything that slows you down or trips you up.

The sin of _____ is the object of this comment.

A truly godly life is not a _____ thing, but active, energetic, and vigorous.

Proactively participate in God’s plan for your life and his kingdom.

The course set before us is all planned out by _____.

Be ready for the resistance that you must endure.

(v.2) Gain the proper perspective.

Keep your eyes on Jesus not your _____.

Jesus Christ is the final goal of all our spiritual training and endurance. (Philippians 3:13-14)

He was always looking forward.

He joyfully took on the shame of the cross to further God’s plan of redemption and grace.

Jesus is in the position of authority because of his faithful obedience.

(v.3-4) Whatever you are facing does not compare to the suffering he endured.

He never gave up his _____ despite the hostility and brutality he endured.

He gave his life in our place to defeat the sin that affects and infects our lives.

If faith does not precede discipline all will end in failure and _____.

Failure to finish the race has tremendous _____ consequences. (Heb.10:26-31)
