

Genesis: The Key to the Bible
(Part 44) God Works Despite the Schemes of Men

Often, we make our decisions and form our _____ based in our culture

We make _____ judgments on other cultures based on our prejudices

Jacob's extended family continued to experience difficulty, while practicing _____.

(38:1-10) Young people _____ cultural traditions

When his oldest son died childless, Judah, asked his next son Onan to have a temporary _____ relationship with his son's widow Tamar

The hope that by him Tamar might produce a child.

Onan _____, because he wanted any children he fathered to be his own.

Because of his refusal to carry out his family obligation, God _____ him

(v.11) Judah _____ to give his youngest son to her in case that son died too.

He sent Tamar home in _____ because she had no children to help her

(v.12-19) Entrapment for the purpose of vindication

(v.12) Judah's wife dies and he mourns

His friend invites him to _____ for a change the scenery

He propositions a " _____ "

(v. 13-19) Tamar accomplishes her purpose and gets pregnant from the line of _____

(v.20-23) Judah attempts to "pay what he owes"

Cannot find the prostitute

Decides to try to save _____

(v.24-26) Righteous indignation exposed as _____

(v.27-30) _____ plan accomplished

Tamar's child is in lineage of _____ (Matthew 1:1-16)