

Mark: Cleansing the Moral Poison of Society
(Part 30) No Turning Back

Jesus is heading to the fulfillment of his _____ and _____.

It is Passover, the busiest and most _____ time of the year in first century Israel.

People have traveled from far and wide to celebrate and make the annual _____.

(Mark 11:1-11) The King is coming

(v.1-7) Jesus prepares for his arrival in Jerusalem.

(v.1) Jesus and the disciples were staying with Lazarus, Mary, and Martha in Bethany, just outside of Jerusalem. (John 12:1-11)

(v.2-7a) Jesus sends 2 of his disciples to Bethphage, an adjacent town, to procure a _____ colt for him to ride.

Declaration of his position as Messiah and fulfillment of _____. (Zechariah 9:9)

(v.7b-10) All hail the King! (John 12:12-16)

Jesus is in a grand procession into Jerusalem with a huge crowd in place.

He is received as a _____.

Jesus, purposely and intentionally, presents Himself as the Messiah knowing that it will provoke a _____ with the Jewish leaders that will result in his crucifixion. (John 12:20-33)

And yet, His declaration also is bathed in grace and humility.

(v.11.) Jesus goes to the _____ for a look and then back to Bethany.

Jesus does not come to the temple as a tourist or gawking _____.

He makes a survey of the situation, the condition of _____.

It seems that this would have been the moment for Him to claim and receive His Messianic _____ and Kingdom.