

An Invitation to God's Rest
(Part 1) Moving Deeper Through Observing Sabbath

God commands us to imitate him. (1 Peter 1:15-17)

To remind us we are not him and to confirm the necessity of _____ on him.

To imitate him we must be obedient to his commands. (John 14:15)

Sin's fortress is our _____. (James 1:13-15; 1 Corinthians 2:14)

The most efficient way to enter into a deeper relationship with God is to stop and rest in him.

To rest, we must _____ a time of Sabbath. (Exodus 20:8)

God designed the Sabbath for our benefit. (Mark 2:27-28)

Resting in Christ is as essential to your life as _____ and _____.

Knowing God more intimately produces deep personal and spiritual growth.

Old _____ are exchanged for new opportunities and possibilities.

New eyes, determination and godly choices help us align with God's will.

The Holy Spirit changes our hearts and minds. (John 16:7-15)

Growing in a relationship with God transforms us. (Romans 12:1-3, Ephesians 4:21-24)

Growth occurs because we have access to the _____ of Christ (1 Corinthians 2:15-16)

God's gift of Sabbath is a delight (Isaiah 58:13-14a)

We understand the privilege of salvation.

We are _____, renewed, and _____.